

BMUS

2024

OBSTETRICS STUDY DAY

Saturday, 7th September
Friend's House, London – NW1 2BJ

Sponsored by:

Canon
CANON MEDICAL

LUMICARE

GE Healthcare

Programme

Chairs: Ms Helen Varley, United Lincolnshire Hospitals NHS Trust and Mrs Cathy Stewart, My Specialist GP

9.00 Registration opens

9.25 Welcome and housekeeping

9.30 Increased NT: All that you want to ask, Dr Fred Ushakov, London Pregnancy Clinic

10.10 Antenatal detection of aortic coarctation – Ms Anne Rhodes, Tiny Tickers

10.45 Refreshment break

11.00 Prediction and prevention of pre-eclampsia, Prof. Kypros Nicolaides, The Fetal Medicine Centre

11.45 Preventing term stillbirth: Does assessing fetal size do more harm than good?, Prof. Basky Thilaganathan, St. George's University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust

12.30 Lunch

13.30 Detection of the abnormally invasive placenta: What are we looking for? Dr Nia Jones, The University of Nottingham

14.15 Dopplers in pregnancy: What a sonographer needs to know, Miss Alexandra Drought, West Middlesex University Hospital

15.00 Refreshment break

15.15 Artificial intelligence in obstetrics: Who's been making the decisions, what are they, and where are they taking us? Dr Trish Chudleigh, Cambridge University Hospitals Trust

16:00 Closing comments